TRUSTS AND FOUNDATIONS SENIOR MANAGER

UWS EDUCATE THE FUTURE
CHANGE THE FUTURE

In partnership with quarter5 fundraising recruitment
UWS is an award-winning global organisation bringing community-centric education models to the world's most remote populations. Since 2008, we've built and developed 294 schools, trained over 1,300 teachers and provided over 55,000 children across Cambodia, Madagascar, Myanmar and Nepal with a quality education.

With the arrival of our visionary Global CEO in the summer of 2022, UWS has just completed a strategic rebrand and market repositioning exercise that highlights the most impactful aspects of our work; our low-cost high-impact model, our partnerships with local communities and governments and how everything we do builds capacity, not dependency. We believe that our new branding allows us to stand out, be different and be heard.

This is an exciting time for us as we build on that momentum to deliver transformational growth in terms of scale and impact.

While UWS has had success with UK-based foundation and trust funding over the years, we are seeking to consolidate a global strategy under one experienced leader who understands the unique complexities and processes of T&F donors in the international development education sector.

UWS is looking to recruit a senior fundraiser who is entrepreneurial in spirit and willing to design and build a multinational trusts and foundations strategy with short and long-term milestones of success; a creative thinker who can pull together programme, evaluation, country, and fundraising teams to win diverse funding opportunities while staying true to the UWS organisational ethos. Simply, UWS is seeking someone who understands the potential of partnerships with trusts and foundations partnerships and knows how to unlock these.

258 million children are currently denied their right to quality education. We've been on a mission to end education poverty since 2008, together we have....

55,158 students enrolled
286 schools
1,251 teachers currently working in a UWS school
UWS works to ensure children have access to quality, inclusive education in remote and marginalised communities by collaborating with local partners, communities and governments.

Since 2008, we’ve built and developed 294 schools, trained over 1,300 teachers and provided over 55,000 children across Cambodia, Madagascar, Myanmar and Nepal with a quality education.

And we’re not stopping here...

I joined UWS in July 2022 as their Global CEO, having personally witnessed the power of education in some of the most challenging and remote regions around the world. The challenges we face are significant, but our ambition is bold—to achieve Zero Education Poverty.

UWS is building the foundations for transformational growth and scale - and that’s where you come in.

We are hiring a new Director of Fundraising and Trusts and Foundations Senior Manager to enhance our fundraising capabilities, diversify our funding sources, and ultimately increase our ability to make a difference in the lives of those we serve. As well as driving income, the successful applicants will be visionary leaders, innovative in their thinking and courageous in their approach.

UWS is a dynamic and inclusive place to work where we encourage collaboration, creativity, and personal growth. Having just relaunched with a new website, branding and articulation of our mission, we are at a very exciting time in our journey.

Education provides a way to make the shift between the world we have and the world we want. There are two possible futures and one difference...This could be you. I dare you!
This newly created position will be ultimately responsible for securing income for UWS from a portfolio of global Trusts and Foundations (T&F) funders.

We are seeking candidates with significant experience with T&F donors ideally in the international development sector, with a preference for education and/or early-childhood wellbeing.
